BIANEW Minutes – June 5th, 2014

Meeting call to order @9:00

Members introduction

We had a little discussion on the locations and then we split the group and toured the homes.

Lunch

After lunch we had a discussion on all the things we saw while touring the houses. We would like to thank all 4 inspectors from the state that attended.

Old business: ICC plaque discussion

New business: because we are a new chapter of the ICC we have an education benefit, the ICC will provide yearly training for our membership. We will check on the details and get back to the group in coming meetings with more details.

New members to the BIANEW group were introduced.

Roundtable: a card was sent to the Lyle Buckman family on behalf of the group.

The City of Appleton will be looking for a new building inspector.

It was discussed we need to change the website to update it and show the new meeting location at Max's

The meeting adjourned after a motion and a 2nd.

Upcoming meetings

July – no meeting

August – environmental studies day at riverside park, Kaukauna
