NEW BUSINESS:

Petter Feters announced that he is working on a possible field trip for the fall, Sargento may be a possibility.

Jane Drager talked about sprinklers in multi-family buildings and whether they will be required or not in the future. The annual on-site training was also mentioned, it was discussed that June was a possibility (maybe even do a commercial site).

An inspector roundtable was held.

It was mentioned that we need to revisit the electrical checklist that was created a couple of years back with current code references.

It was mentioned that April or May we may want to consider some plumbing code updates, the group was talking about maybe hiring some of the retired State inspectors to do the continuing Ed.

A motion was started by John Oldenburg to look into continuing ed for plumbing in May and to maybe get a committee together for it.

Seconded by Lorelei Fuehrer.

Motion passed unanimously.

Phil Borchart mentioned he is outgoing League Representative and that Nicole Krahn will take his place.

Jane Drager mentioned that any continuing education should always contain Wisconsinisms.
